ALONG THE RIVER FRONT

SUNKEN SCHOONER TO BE SOLD AND WRECKED.

Contract Placed for Construction of Steam Pile Driver—General Port News.

The two-masted schooner Anna Marts, which lies sunken in Nomini creek near the ferry wharf, is being stripped of her sails and other movable articles and will, it is understood, be sold where she lies, to be wrecked. She is owned by parties in Baltimore and was a frequent visitor to this port with cargoes of lumber and wood from river points. The Marts registers forty-eight gross and thirty-one net tons and is 76 feet long, 20 feet wide and 5.3 feet deep. She was built at Millvale, N. J., in 1874, but has been in the Potomac and Chesapeake bay trade for several years. The schooner had gone into Nomini creek to load cord wood for this port and the night of September 9 she sprang a leak and sank at her moorings in about twelve feet of water.

Messrs. Carter & Clark of this city have placed a contract with Mr. Edward Dear of Alexandria for the building of a hull and house for a steam pile driver, to be used about the wharves and docks of the city and on the river. The new pile driver will be fitted with the boiler and machinery now in a pile driver purchased by Messrs. Carter & Clark from the estate of the late W. H. Winston of Alexandria and which is lying at the shipyard in Alexandria. Material for the new machine is now being made ready and work will be begun in about two weeks.

Prices at the fish wharf market this morning ranged as follows: For large trout, 50c. per pound; for small trout, 35c. per pound; black bass, 30c. per pound; medium rock, 8 to 10c. per pound; pan rock, 6 to 8c. per pound; boiling crabs, 12c. per pound; crabs, 2c. per pound; sturgeon, 8c. per pound; white perch, 5 to 10c. per pound; or 10 to 25c. per bunch; eels, 15 to 25 cents per bunch; catfish, 15 to 20c. per bunch; carp, 25c. per pound, or 25c. each; gray trout, $2.50 to $3 per barrel, and butterfish, $3 to $4 per barrel.

A fleet of oyster-laden craft has arrived at the oyster wharf, foot of 11th street, from the Potomac oyster beds, and the supply is again plentiful. Prices this morning were about as usual, the small oysters selling at 45 to 55c. per bushel and the large ones at 60 to 75c. per bushel.

The Passing Craft.
The steamer E. James Tull arrived here Saturday with a cargo of 80,000 feet of pine lumber from Aquia creek, Va., for Johnson & Wimsatt.

The tug Camilla, with a barge laden with coal for the dredge, left to sail Saturday night for the Maryland Point shoals.

The steam launch Bartholdi, with a pleasure party aboard, made a trip on the river to Gunston and Glymont Saturday.

The southerly winds of Saturday and Sunday brought a heavy weather over the laden craft into port, the arrivals being the R. H. Stuart, Mary and Rebecca, W. H. Sinker, Shining Light, E. P. Evans, Elenora Russell and Fair American.

The rebuilding of the wharf at Liver Point has been completed and the landing is now in good order for boats all under conditions of the weather. The work was done by one of Banks' pile drivers from this city.

The large pile-driver of Mr. Wm. Banks is being used to rebuild the wharf in Georgetown, near the Aqueduct bridge, known as the gauge house wharf.

The schooner James Bryce, laden with railway ties from Alexandria for Boston, passed out at the capes Sunday, having been detained by heavy weather.

The tug James O. Carter of this city, which is now engaged in the surveys over the Kettle Bottom shoals in the lower end of the Potomac river, was reported at Rock Point Sunday.

The light-house tender Holly is cruising among the light stations in the lower end of Chesapeake bay and the Potomac river.

Complaint is made by the river men that the light in the station at Jones Point, below Alexandria, has become so dim that it is difficult to distinguish it at any distance away.

A shipment of fifty barrels of flour was taken by the steamer Samuel J. Pentz Saturday morning from the department quarters to the commissary at Fort Washington for the use of the soldiers at that post.

The steamer Lily and Howard is lying in Nomini creek looking for cargo of lumber to be taken to the factory of Mr. Robert Murphy, for the dealers here and at Alexandria.

CHARGES DISMISSED.
The District Commissioners have dismissed the charges of non-payment of debt which were brought against Private J. E. Barnes of the police force. The officer was brought before the police trial board on the complaint of Henry C. Terrell of 816 18th street northwest, who alleged that Private Barnes had failed and neglected to pay a judgment of $27.15 rendered against him before Justice of the Peace O'Neill. In the trial it was brought out that Officer Barnes originally borrowed $40 from Terrell and his wife, who were in the business at the corner of 6th and D streets northwest. He gave the money-lender his note for $44, the extra four dollars being interest on the $40 obtained. Barnes said he had paid 10 per cent a month on the principal and the $4 interest money which he did not receive. Then he paid $20 of the principal and gave a new note for $24, the amount of the balance. He paid $24 interest on this up to the time that suit was brought against him. Officer Barnes claimed before the trial board that he owed Terrell nothing, having paid in interest more than the amount of the principal.

The trial board found the officer not guilty, saying: "The testimony shows that Officer Barnes had paid in usurious interest a note of $24 the sum of $40.50, which more than paid the note with legal interest, and we are of the opinion that he has satisfied the legal requirements in this case, and recommend that the charges be dismissed."

Major Sylvester and the Commissioners have approved this action.

Where Marco Bonarras Fell.
Karpensation, Greece, is to be lighted by electricity, and United States Consul McGinley at Athens says in a report to the State Department that it is desired to obtain the electric plant from the United States. Karpensation is the village which the heroic Greek chieftain, Marco Bonarras, was defending in 1823 when he fell in a midnight sortie against the Turks, an event made famous by Fitz Greene Hall's stirring poem.

Reports Submitted.
The annual report of Assistant Secretary of the Interior Campbell and Commissioner of Indian Affairs Jones have been completed and submitted to Secretary Hitchcock.
